Dictation

Read a passage to the child. Have the child write the dication on the lines below.

The page contains ten sets of horizontal lines for handwriting practice. Each set is composed of three lines: a solid blue line at the top, a dashed red line in the middle, and a solid blue line at the bottom. These sets are arranged vertically down the page, providing ample space for a child to practice writing words dictated by an adult.

Remember to begin with a capital, add spaces, and end with a punctuation mark.
